

Airl is a great station. It helps me through the day by giving me a positive attitude. It keeps me oriented on the task at hand and reminds me of my obligation and duty to my family, community and world. It inspires many people in our community and brings many people back to a basis in their life.